- Any feature/page additions beyond agreed scope will be charged separately at ₹ [xyz] per page / per feature.
- Urgent delivery (before agreed deadline) may attract an additional rush fee of ₹ [AMOUNT].
- Travel or in-person meeting charges (if applicable): ₹ [AMOUNT] per visit.

3. TIMELINE & DELIVERY

Total Estimated Duration	[X] Working Days from advance payment date
Design Mockup / Preview	Within [X] days of project start (for client approval)
Development Phase	[X] days after design approval
Testing & QA	[X] days
Final Delivery	On or before [DD/MM/YYYY] — subject to timely content & feedback from client

3.1 Delivery Guidelines

- Timeline starts ONLY after advance payment is received.
- Client must provide all required content (text, images, logo, branding) within [X] days of project start. Delays in content submission will proportionally delay delivery.
- Each revision round requested by the client will add [1–2] working days to the timeline.
- If the client is unreachable for more than [5] consecutive working days, the project may be paused until communication resumes.
- Developer will share progress updates every [X] days or at each milestone.

4. REVISION POLICY

Revisions are part of the development process. The following policy applies:

Free Revisions Included	2 Rounds of revisions.
What a Revision Includes	Minor text changes, color adjustments, layout tweaks within agreed scope
What is NOT a Revision	Adding new pages, new features, complete redesigns — these are additional charges
Extra Revision Cost	[₹500] per additional revision round after free rounds are used
Revision Request Method	Via WhatsApp or Email only — verbal requests will not be considered
Revision Turnaround	[depends on context , how long it] working days per revision round

> Revisions are limited to the originally agreed design and features. A redesign request (i.e., complete change in layout, theme, or structure) is considered a new project and will be quoted separately.

5. DEVELOPER RESPONSIBILITIES

- Deliver the website as per the agreed scope, pages, features, and design direction.
- Ensure the website is fully responsive across mobile, tablet, and desktop devices.
- Ensure cross-browser compatibility on major browsers (Chrome, Edge).
- Test all forms, buttons, and interactive elements before delivery.
- Provide the client with login credentials and access after full payment.
- Keep client project data and content strictly confidential.
- Communicate updates and any delays proactively and in a timely manner.
- Deliver a clean, organized codebase or CMS setup that is manageable by the client.
- Provide a brief handover session (call or screen share) to explain how to use/manage the website.

6. CLIENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- Provide all required content (text, images, logo, videos, brand guidelines) within the agreed timeframe.
- Provide clear, timely feedback at each milestone stage.
- Make payments on time as per the agreed payment schedule.
- Ensure all images, logos, and content provided are owned by the client or properly licensed. The developer is not liable for copyright issues arising from client-provided content.
- Avoid making direct changes to the live website during development without informing the developer.
- Be available for communication (WhatsApp/Email/Call) during the project period.
- Consolidate all revision requests into a single communication rather than sending them one by one.
- Review and approve each milestone/design stage promptly to avoid project delays.

7. DOMAIN & HOSTING

Domain Registration	[Client to purchase / Developer to purchase on behalf of client at actual cost]
Hosting Provider	[e.g., Hostinger / GoDaddy / Bluehost] - (client buy as discussed)
Hosting Setup	Developer will set up and configure the hosting environment
Hosting Cost	Paid by the client and he will responsible for future cases also .
Login Credentials	Shared with client at project handover after full payment
SSL Certificate	Basic SSL (HTTPS) will be set up — either free (Let's Encrypt) or client-paid

Note: Annual domain renewal and hosting renewal are the sole responsibility of the Client after the website is delivered.*

8. OWNERSHIP RIGHTS

- Upon receipt of full and final payment, the Client shall own the website design, content, and all deliverables created specifically for this project.
- The Developer retains the right to display the completed website in their portfolio and use it for promotional purposes (e.g., showing screenshots/demo) unless the client explicitly requests confidentiality in writing.
- Any third-party plugins, themes, stock images, or licensed assets used in the project are governed by their respective license terms. Costs for premium licenses (if any) are borne by the client.
- If the project is cancelled before completion, the Developer retains ownership of all work done up to that point.
- The Developer retains ownership of any reusable code libraries, frameworks, or tools built independently of this project.

9. CANCELLATION POLICY

Cancellation by Client	Advance payment is non-refundable. If cancelled mid-project, client pays for work completed up to cancellation date.
Cancellation by Developer	If Developer cancels, a full refund of advance payment will be issued within 7 working days.
Scope Abandonment	If client is unresponsive for 15+ consecutive days, the project is considered abandoned. Advance payment is forfeited.
Refund on Final Payment	No refund once final payment is made and website has been delivered/handed over.
Change of Mind	A change in the website type, platform, or complete scope after work has begun is considered a new project and will require a fresh agreement.
